Special Assembly on topic- “Never Give Up”

"Never Give Up" is a powerful mantra that inspires us to persevere through life's challenges. It reminds us that every setback is an opportunity to learn and grow, and that every failure is a stepping stone to success.

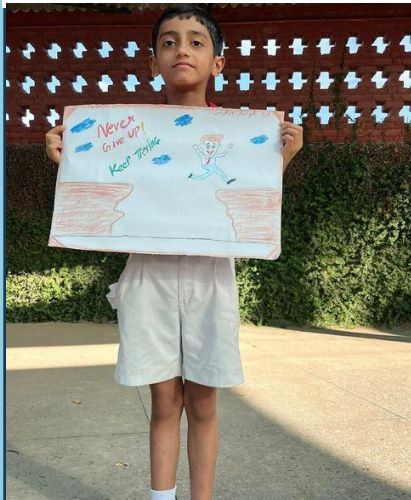

When we face obstacles, it's easy to feel discouraged and want to throw in the towel. But it's precisely in those moments that we must dig deep and find the strength to keep going.

Never giving up means being resilient, adaptable, and courageous. It means believing in ourselves and our abilities, even when the odds seem insurmountable.

So, no matter what life throws your way, remember that every great achievement requires persistence, determination, and a refusal to surrender. Keep pushing forward, and know that the triumph is just around the corner. Never Give Up!

The students of Grade 3 A presented a sweet assembly on the Topic NEVER GIVE UP.....

Daises of youth

In the quiet dawn of dreams once bright,
We step from shadows into the light.
With choices made and burdens borne,
The child within feels a bit forlorn.

Yet freedom whispers in a different way.
Inviting us to chase our dreams and seize the day.
Each choice a lesson, each scar a mark,
In the vastness of life, we find our spark.

The journey is winding, the road often steep,
In the depth of the night, we sometimes weep.
But in the dawn's glow, resilience thrives,
In this journey of grown years, our spirit survives.

In gardens of growth, the flowers we see,
Are symbols of patience and harmony.
For just like a bud, it takes time to know—
That true strength is quiet, and steady to grow.

Arushi Gupta (11-A)

When Will We Be Safe?

When will we be safe?

I fear this world, its silent cries,
Behind closed doors, beneath dark skies,
I took birth too, with dreams in hand,
But where is the right to simply stand.

When will we be safe?

We scream for justice, yet it's slow,
Each day, another woman's woe,
A heart erased, A system lost
in its own disgrace.

When will we be safe?

Will laws change minds, will hearts unite,
Will we ever reclaim the night?
I fear this world, I feel it's a cage,
But in my heart, there burns a rage.
A hope that one day, we'll be free
To walk in peace and glee

Samriddhi Pandey (12-A)

Beyond The Skies: A Tribute to Indian Paralympians

In fields of gold under the Indian sun,
With strength of heart, they've only begun.
From every corner, they rise and strive,
With dreams unbroken, they truly thrive.

Wheels and legs may differ in form,
But spirit ignites like a fierce storm.
With each event, they break the mold,
Tales of courage in every fold.

In the heart of India, where hopes unite,
They challenge limits, igniting the night.
With chants of "India," they run and play,
Inspiring us all, come what may.

From the heights of Tokyo to our distant shores,
They redefine what "can" and "more."
With pride we cheer, our voices strong,
For in their journey, we all belong.

Gaurav Bisht (12-A)

The Price of Perfection

Chasing marks like fleeting gold,
Hoping in their hands to hold
A measure of worth, a sign to show
That they're enough, that they can grow.

A stamp of A's, a list of grades,
Validation in accolades.
Yet beneath it all, a quiet plea—
"Do they love the real me?"

For every number, for every score,
They push themselves to give much more.
But in this race, what do they find?
A loss of peace, a troubled mind.

Beyond the grades, beyond the praise,
Lies a person lost in the maze.
For self-worth shines from deep inside,
Not in the scores that they confide.
