MESSAGE FROM THE MANAGEMENT'S DESK

Ms. Ritu Bhalla
(Founder)

Little Scholars is a journey of self-discovery for a child as they grow to become young adults. The school will equip him to excel in academics, and to be savvy in through a Hybrid learning platform. The student will be encouraged to discover their interests, talents and aptitudes, and learn to form their opinions and role in society. This is achieved in a nurturing environment, where the Mentor enacts the role of a Second Parent. An important feature of this process is the school's provision of rich choices, be they in courses of academics, co-curricular activities in artistic, creative and intellectual activities, and in sports and adventure. Engagements with ecology and heritage allow engagements with the community, within the school, in rural areas, or through NGOs, nurturing the ideologies of the school motto 'Service before self'. Leadership abilities to take decisions and to find solutions are imbibed on the sports field, through social interactions, and through positions of responsibility provided in school, aiming not just to nurture the students through their formative years, but also to place them on a continuous curiosity to learn, while carrying the responsibilities of leader with understanding, intelligence, sensitivity and an inclusive attitude.

MESSAGE FROM THE MANAGEMENT'S DESK

Ms. Shikha Gautum
(Principal)

Foundation of every nation is education. The objective of education is to prepare the young to educate themselves. It is a continuous life long process and school is one of the most important components of this process. At LITTLE SCHOLARS, Kashipur the task of guiding children towards their journey to adulthood is taken up with utmost seriousness through strategically and scientifically planned steps so that the students and parents relax and enjoy the process of becoming lifelong learners. Guiding principles of NCF emphasizes on connecting knowledge to life outside school and ensuring learning is shifted away from rote methods to allow holistic development of the child. Besides the familiar academic areas life skills, thinking skills, entrepreneurial skills, sports, creative and performing art are a part of the school time table. Teaching methodology is student centred and designed to capture attention, interest & concentration. Each child has the potential to be the one who can make a difference. Given appropriate support, guidance and opportunity they can create magic that will astonish us. At LITTLE SCHOLARS each child is provided with opportunity to realize his/her potential. We work towards shaping self-confident individuals. Self-confidence has three components i.e. having skills, feeling appreciated and being responsible. Our children will be enabled to transform knowledge (what they know) and attitudes (what they feel and believe) into action (what to do and how to do). Our focus is on students acquiring precision in use of language, refined gentle manners, ability to appreciate culture, power and habit of reflection and efficiency to perform. Education is about the total configuration of ideas, practices and conduct. Schools ought to be a breathing place, providing real meaning of life for students. We continuously strive to achieve this and get better and better every day in every way.

EARTH DAY

<https://www.facebook.com/share/p/16WNuccwsk/>

One evening, a boy named Arjun walked to his favourite park, hoping to hear birdsong and see the calm pond. Instead, he found silence — the pond was filled with plastic, and the birds were gone. Heartbroken, he rallied his friends. Together, they cleaned the mess. Days later, the birds returned. That moment changed Arjun forever — he realized that even small hands can make a big difference. This is what Earth Day, celebrated every April 22, is all about — not just raising awareness, but inspiring action. Started in 1970, Earth Day has become a global reminder that our planet is in danger, and it's up to us to save it. As students, we are not too young to lead change. We can:

- Say no to plastic
- Save electricity and water
- Plant trees
- Clean our surroundings
- Use our voices to inspire others

Earth has given us everything — air, water, shelter, and life itself. If we don't protect it, who will?

This Earth Day, let's not make promises we forget. Let's make a difference that lasts. Because saving the Earth isn't just an option — it's our responsibility.

Eco Anxiety Echoes of a Fragile Earth

Won SPECIAL MENTION at International Competition of sustainability organised by TSL AT BERKSHIRE

In the depths of my soul, a worry resides
A fear for the future, a planet that divides
The weight of the world, on my shoulders it stays
A constant reminder, of the earth's fading rays

The news is a nightmare, a never-ending stream
Of devastation and loss, a world in a scream
The ice caps are melting, the seas are on fire
The earth's final warning, a desperate, dying desire

I lie awake at night, my mind racing with fear
The thought of a future, without hope, without cheer
The world I knew, is fading away
A new world is emerging, in a most dreadful way

The trees are dying, the bees are disappearing
The oceans are choking, the earth is despairing
The climate is changing, the weather's gone mad
A world in chaos, a future that's sad

I feel so powerless, so small and so weak
A tiny drop, in a vast, polluted sea
But still I hold on, to hope's glimmering light
A chance for redemption, a new path to take flight

For every voice, that speaks out loud
A collective cry, that echoes proud
For every action, that's taken with care
A step towards healing, a world that's fair

So let us rise, and let our voices be heard
For the earth's sake, let our actions be stirred
For a future bright, where all can thrive
Let's ease the earth's pain, and let love survive

Let's plant some trees, and save some bees
Let's clean up the oceans, and calm the breeze
Let's reduce, reuse, recycle, and restore
Let's heal the earth's wounds, and love her more

For we are the guardians, of this planet so fair
We are the stewards, of the earth's precious care
We are the ones, who can make a change
We are the hope, for a brighter, more sustainable range

So, let's join hands, and hearts, and minds
Let's work together, to leave the earth behind
In a better state, than when we arrived
A world that's thriving, where all can survive.

From Worry to Will: A Journey of Green Awakening

Won FINALIST at International Competition of sustainability organised by TSL AT BERKSHIRE

In the quiet of morning, the news starts to play,
Headlines of sorrow, painting skies gray.
Reports of the planet, the ice caps that melt,
The fires that rage, the pain deeply felt.

A whisper of worry creeps into the mind,
As images flash, leaving hope far behind.
The air thick with tension, the oceans run dry,
A world in distress, and I can't help but sigh.

Each story I hear, a weight on my chest,
As I ponder our future, the fate of the rest.
The forests are fading, the creatures in flight,
I feel a deep sadness, a longing for light.

But in the stillness, a flicker of thought,
What if I could change things, or at least give it a shot?
I turn to the earth, to the wisdom of trees,
To learn from their strength, their grace in the breeze.

I study the cycles, the seasons that flow,
How life can emerge from the depths of the snow.
The roots intertwine, a network so vast,
In their quiet resilience, I find hope at last.

With hands in the soil, I plant my first seed,
A simple beginning, a tiny good deed.
Watering gently, I nurture with care,
As new life awakens, I breathe in the air.

The joy of creation, the thrill of the green,
In every small sprout, my worries grow lean.
I watch as the branches stretch out to the sky,
A testament to hope, as the days pass by.

But it's not just for me; I must share what I've learned,
For change is a fire, and it's waiting to be burned.
I gather my neighbours, my friends, and my kin,
To speak of the beauty that lies deep within.

"Let's plant a tree, let's make a small stand,
For every small action can heal our land.
From seeds in our gardens to parks in our towns,
Together we rise, we can turn this around."

With laughter and love, we dig in the earth,
Each tree that we plant is a symbol of worth.
For in every small gesture, a ripple is cast,
A movement ignited, a future amassed.

We learn from the trees, their wisdom so clear,
That hope is a cycle, renewed every year.
In the shade of their branches, we find our way back,
To a world that is vibrant, no longer off track.

So, let's spread the word, let's share what we know,
That small acts of kindness can help us all grow.
In the dance of the leaves, in the song of the breeze,
We find our connection, our hearts at ease.

In the quiet of morning, the news starts to play,
But now when I listen, I see a new way.
For every small action, a change starts to bloom,
Together in purpose, dispelling the gloom.

Let's cherish the Earth, let's honour its grace,
With love in our hearts, we'll embrace this place.
For in every small seed, a future we'll find,
A world filled with hope, where we're all intertwined.

Rise Like a Phoenix

Your dreams are stars, shining up high ,
All you need are wings to fly
Storms may come and nights may deepen ,
But let your purpose burn and never sleep.

Just try, try and fall
But then rise, like a phoenix through the flame
Don't let the stumbles dim your light
And let each step still draws you towards the height.

Scars may linger, fears may stay, But grit will always find a way.
Let silence teach and fire remain, let strength surge boldly through your pain.

Though trials are harsh and seasons are grey, but don't let your resilience drift away.
Adorn your wounds as they tell your tale,
Of rising fierce when trials failed .

The path is steep, the night austere,
And still you walk , defying fear.
No map exists for dreams unchained,
They're drawn where passion is sustained.

You will never truly enjoy the taste of success, Until you have tasted failure's bitterness.

So challenge fate, surpass the norm,
And find your calm within the storm.
For in the quiet, stars ignite.
Revealing purpose, bold and bright.

So rise, pure soul, and chase your flame — The world is waiting to know your name.
